

JUNEFEST 2018 BOOTH REGISTRATION

Celebrate National Deafblind Awareness Month at JuneFest 2018

Friday June 15th from 11am – 3pm, we will be hosting our annual JuneFest event at Nathan Phillips Square that is located in the heart of downtown Toronto at 100 Queen St W, Toronto, ON M5H 2N2. We will continue our tradition of presenting the JT Award to a deserving individual, consumer group or service provider who, demonstrate excellence in creating awareness of the disability of deafblindness, expanding services and programs, and ensuring consumer involvement at all levels.

As an added bonus: The City Hall Towers will be lit up blue and celebrating June as Deafblind awareness month the night of June 15th along with CN Tower and the Peace Bridge in Niagara Falls
IN ADDITION, The Toronto sign will be lit up blue from 9am June 15 until 9am June 16 and the National Deafblind Awareness flag will be raised at 12 noon June 15.

If you are interested in setting up an information booth, please have your registration in by Friday May 11th and your payment in by the end of May. Along with your registration, we will need a list of items you will have set up at your booth as per the rules and regulations of Nathan Phillips Square.

*Please note you will have to bring your own tent and it must be weighted down with sandbags, large water bottles etc.. If you do not have these weights, you will not be able to set up your tent!
You can start booth set-up at 9am and you can start taking down your booth at 3pm
